

HISTORY

- 1 - North Facade
- 2 - Colonnade
- 3 - New Wall Graphics
- 4 - Northwest Facade
- 5 - Chapel
- 6 - Cafeteria

Founded as a female seminary in 1889, Agnes Scott College is now an all-female liberal arts institution. In 1905, the school enlisted the Atlanta architectural firm Bruce & Morgan to design a beautiful new Italian Renaissance Revival structure to keep up with their growth, and Rebekah Scott Hall became the second permanent building on campus.

